STATE OF GUJARAT

Appearance:

1. Special Civil Application No. 5949 of 2001

MR HR PRAJAPATI for Petitioner No. 1

MR MR PRAJAPATI for Petitioner No. 1

MR HANSABEN PUNANI, AGP for Respondents No. 1-3

CORAM : MR.JUSTICE R.P.DHOLAKIA

Date of decision: 28/12/2001

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The petitioner has been detained under the provisions of Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as `the Act of 1985') by the order dated 4-7-2001 passed by the Police Commissioner, Ahmedabad City and she has been declared as bootlegger.

2. It is now well settled that unless the activities of a person as bootlegger has disturbed the maintenance of public order, she cannot be detained under the Act. Reliance is placed on a decision of the case of Piyush Kantilal Mehta Vs. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad & Ors. reported in AIR 1989 SC 491.

3. Heard learned advocate for the petitioner and learned APP for the State. Also perused the material on record. According to learned advocate for the petitioner, the detenu has submitted a representation by R.P.A.D. to the State Government on 13-7-2001 and though it has been rejected by the State Government on 20-7-2001, same has been communicated to the detenu on 27-7-2001 and hence, there is a delay in deciding the representation and communicating the decision to the detenu. He has relied upon the case of Harish Pahwa Vs. State of U.P. and others, AIR 1981 S.C. 1126, more particularly para 3 which runs as under:

> "The representation made by a detenu has to be considered without any delay. The Supreme Court does not look at equanimity upon delays when the liberty of a person is concerned. Calling comments from other departments, seeking the opinion of Secretary after Secretary and allowing the representation to lie without being attended to is not the type of action which the State is expected to take in a matter of such vital importance. It is the duty of the State to proceed to determine representations with the utmost expedition, which means that the matter must be taken up for consideration as soon as such a representation is received and dealt with continuously (unless it is absolutely necessary to wait for some assistance in connection with it) until a final decision is taken and communicated to the detenu. Where this is not done the detention has to be declared unconstitutional."

4. In the present case, it is clear that the detenu has sent the representation on 13-7-2001 to the State Government and though it has been rejected by the State Govt. on 20-7-2001, same has been communicated to the detenu on 27-7-2001 i.e. after a period of 7 days and no satisfactory explanation has been putforward by the authority for the delay caused in communicating the decision to the detenu. Hence, in view of the aforesaid judgment of the Apex Court relied upon by the learned advocate for the petitioner, the order of detention is illegal and the same cannot be sustained.

5. The petition is allowed. The impugned order of detention dated 4-7-2001 passed against the detenu is hereby quashed and set aside. The detenu Smt.Girjaben, W/o Ramanbhai Vasidbhai Chunara is hereby ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule is made absolute accordingly with no order as to costs. Direct service is permitted.
